Donation Policy: The Family History & Genealogy Center library welcomes donations of historical and genealogical materials related to Denmark, Danish immigrants and immigration, and Danish-American institutions. All donations become the property of the Center and their subsequent disposition will be determined by the Center staff in conformance with the Center's Collection Development Policy. Materials which do not fit our collection guidelines or which duplicate materials already in the FHGC collection will not be added. Attempts will be made to find appropriate homes for them before discarding.

The above material is donated to the Family History & Genealogy Center with the understanding that the aforesaid donation policy will apply.
